

GIRLS' TIP JAILS TWO IN SLAYING

Youths Held in Jersey in Connection With Murder of Store-keeper's Wife.

Two girls told a story, the result of the arrest of the young men in connection with the murder of Mrs. Lee H. Stein on Christmas morning in her home in Passaic.

The men were the son of Joseph H. Stein, alias "Doc" Stein, who lived at No. 100 West 10th Street, Jersey City, and Eugene Stein, alias "Doc" Stein, who lived at No. 100 West 10th Street, Jersey City. When the two girls were arrested, they were charged with the murder of Mrs. Stein.

The girls were Mary McLaughlin, 19, of No. 100 West 10th Street, Jersey City, and Esther Stein, 17, of No. 100 West 10th Street, Jersey City. The McLaughlin girl is known also as Mary Stein.

OPPOSE OUSTING OF POLICE CHIEF

Mount Vernon Residents Aroused Over Proposed Change by Mayor-Elect.

Mount Vernon residents are aroused because Chief of Police James J. Foley, for 27 years head of the department, is about to be replaced by a man whom the Republican city organization is believed to be supporting, Elmer L. Kinsell, will become Mayor Jan. 1. He has named Charles Wynn, a strict Republican organization man for the place.

Chief Foley will be 64 in June. No complaint of incompetency has ever been heard against him except from a few politicians. He was named chief when Mount Vernon was a village. He has seen the Police Department grow from five to more than fifty men.

Austria to Make Loan in Paris. VIENNA, Dec. 22.—Austria, Secretary of State, will go to Paris to negotiate an advance of from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000 to be guaranteed by a pool of the Austrian tobacco monopoly. It was announced today.

ORPHANS VANISH; XMAS FEAST WAITS

Twenty-five Youngsters Wander in Vain Search of Promised Christmas Party.

The belated Christmas dinner of twenty-five little orphans is still a belated function. Mrs. Richard Miller invited that number of kiddies who had no Christmas cheer to a party at her home in Palmyra Manor yesterday and the charity organization of No. 105 East 124 Street gathered the number.

Mrs. Miller told the turkey and things all ready, but the kiddies didn't come. She telephoned in the society and was assured they were on their way. Several hours later Mrs. Miller phoned the New York and the New Rochelle police and general alarm were sent out. State departments were turned inside out, but the orphans had vanished.

Between 7 and 8 o'clock the kiddies, bedraggled, befuddled and with ragged appetites, came home. They had been on the Mount Vernon trolley by mistake.

At the society room it was said today that they would get that Xmas dinner yet.
